

IMPROV TO IMPROVE: ACTING IT OUT!

Thursday | 1:00 PM - 1:50 PM | Via Zoom and/or in-person

Instructor: David Macaluso

Unleash your creativity and build strong community connections through the art of improvisation. In this interactive class, you will discover the power of teamwork with creative techniques and a character-based approach to unlock your inner improviser. Come out of your shell and overcome imaginary day to day obstacles or enjoying acting out escaping from some outrageous scenarios. Did the barista get your order wrong? Did aliens damage your spaceship? The possibilities are endless!

Updated on 10/25/24 for Fall II Student learning outcomes will include acting techniques while improving their communication via voice projection and collaborative skits in this interactive class.

Each class will be taught utilizing effective Improv skills and techniques such as:

- “Yes, and!”
- Actively Listen and Respond
- Make Your Partner(s) Look Good/ Understand Your Role in the Scene
- Realize There Are No Mistakes!

As students learn, the instructor will provide immediate feedback and opportunities for each student to refine their Improv and Acting skillset.
