

2024 SPRING II CLASS INFORMATION

Exploring Broadway: Disney Musicals & Beyond

Wednesday | 2:00 PM - 2:50 PM | Via Zoom and/or in-person

Instructor: David Macaluso

Continue your exploration of the enchanting world of Disney and Broadway, while also delving into lesser-known productions that have shaped Broadway's illustrious history. This interactive class serves as a captivating gateway into the creative collaborations and behind-the-scenes magic that have brought these iconic shows to life.

Discover the intricacies of the creative process, from inception to stage production, as we dissect the elements that make these shows truly remarkable. Engage in lively discussions, explore the art of constructive criticism, and unravel the secrets behind Broadway's most beloved productions.

Prepare for a dynamic learning experience where you may find yourself not only discussing but also dancing and singing along to the timeless tunes that have captivated audiences for generations. Join us as we journey through the captivating world of Disney and Broadway, uncovering the stories and inspirations that have shaped theatrical history.
