Go behind the scenes! As the focus of this interactive Performing Arts class is an introduction to all the exciting backstage aspects of live theater! What goes on BEHIND the curtain? We will interview working professionals- from regional theater producers, to touring lighting designers, to dressers of Broadway shows like Wicked! Instructor Macaluso will even show videos of his own experiences performing across the USA. We will explore the wonder of the theater world behind the scenes and discover what makes a show tick. From lighting and costumes, to stage management, and producing. It's all about collaboration!
