Join instructor Erin Vlasak, M.S. for this enriching student favorite! In this highly interactive class, students will have the opportunity to learn the basics of conversational Spanish and/or improve upon their Spanish speaking ability. Along with reviewing and teaching the Spanish language, students will also learn about Spanish culture, different dialects, the historical roots of the Spanish language and how the language has spread throughout the world. Erin's years of teaching, her minor in Spanish, and her travel experience all add to students loving the chance to learn in her class.
