Join us in this popular, on-going class as we use Acting and Improv techniques to improve our ability to listen, empathize, communicate, and connect positively with others. Creativity, expression, and self-confidence will blossom as we support each other in creating characters, scenes, and scenarios. Plus, Acting and Improv can be both fun and funny! This interactive student favorite has a growing community of new acting and improv students that, under the instruction of David Macaluso, are bringing out the best in one another.
