

Stagecraft - Behind the Scenes: Wicked Style!

Wednesday | 3:00 PM - 3:50 PM | Via Zoom and/or in-person

Instructor: David Macaluso

This unique and interactive class that teaches students all the “behind the scenes” aspects for various stage shows and productions will focus on Wicked. Students will utilize their research, writing, communication and presentation skills as this class explores “technique to adaptation” to answer this question...

How does a book written over 100 years ago become a stage play, then a classic movie musical, then another book, a stage musical and now a pair of feature musical films?! Students will be guided through acting/improv scenes to increase their understanding of Wicked, to “re-write” pages/scenes from the original book, to study the creative set design and costumes needed to bring Wicked to life and even have the chance to interview a former cast member of the Broadway musical. We look forward to you joining instructor David Macaluso in this awesome student-inspired focus for his beloved Stagecraft class.
