

History of Walt Disney: 100 Years of Magic

Tuesday | 10:00 AM - 10:50 AM | Via Zoom and/or in-person

Instructor: Jason Baron

Delve into the fascinating history and enduring legacy of Disney, a cultural phenomenon that has captured hearts and imaginations for over a century.

Together, we'll explore the magic behind Disney's timeless creations and the talented individuals who have played pivotal roles in its success. In this interactive course, students will utilize and enhance their research, presentation, analytical thinking and effective communication styles as they trace the evolution of Disney over the decades, from its humble beginnings to its status as a global entertainment powerhouse.

We will discover the diverse array of actors, singers, writers, and other creative minds who have contributed to Disney's iconic films, theme parks, and more.

Last, we will investigate the impact of Disney's storytelling on audiences worldwide, examining how its characters and themes have resonated across generations.
