

History of Walt Disney: Pixar Meets Disney

Mondays | 5:00 PM - 5:50 PM | Via Zoom and/or in-person

Instructor: Jason Baron

Join this interactive study into Pixar, from their famous films to their character relationships. Through film and scene analysis, students will research and share their findings, discovering how the film themes, trials, and triumphs relate to their own lives.

Together, we will learn how the history and enduring legacy of Disney captured more hearts with its Pixar expansion and partnership. This class will examine how the two have strengthened one another's legacy.

This class will explore the impact of Disney and Pixar's storytelling, characters, and themes, highlighting the central lesson both studios convey: the importance of friendship.
