

Summer 2021 Classes

with WILLIAM “BILL” RUSSELL, M.S

class description: This interactive class will be offered through the hybrid teaching model on live Zoom and also in-person at our Hauppauge location. You will engage in activities to help understand your personal style and writing preferences and learn the expectations of an editor and the editing process. Our class is the perfect place to try out new ideas, have your creations reviewed by the instructor, share with others and then get honest and considerate class feedback. We will identify online sites for writers of fiction and fan fiction that provide an opportunity to self-publish and share with a wider writing community and learn how to practice safe online conduct in such environments.

dates and times: 8 Tuesdays • 2 - 2:50pm
6/29, 7/6, 7/13, 7/20, 7/27, 8/3, 8/10, 8/17
