Since in the 1930's, storylines about superheroes have grabbed our attention and stolen our hearts. Often their stories reflected the current historical and cultural pulse of our nation. This interactive class will go in depth about the creative inspiration behind your favorite Marvel superheroes. You will learn about their background stories, their powers/abilities, their weaknesses and the motivation behind why they chose to protect! Is your favorite Marvel hero Thor? Captain Marvel? Black Widow? Join us as we practice our research, communication and presentation skills as we tap into the historical and cultural secrets and excitement behind beloved characters.
