

Music Appreciation: Through the Decades!

Tuesday | 3:00 PM - 3:50 PM | Via Zoom and/or in-person

Instructor: Brittany Ennover

Calling all music fans! From the Beatles to Boy Bands to Ariana! In this interactive class, students will learn how music has evolved and adapted over time to be in sync historically, culturally and meaningfully with the world. We will discuss different themes through various artist's lyrics- from the political backdrop that affected the world to the cultural landscapes and continued evolution of society as we know it.

We will hear, identify, and learn about the different instruments that artists used to create the unique sounds that built their musical legacies. From jukeboxes to music in social media- Blues, Rock 'n Roll, Country music, Punk style music, Pop, etc, no genre or artist is off limits as we learn to follow and explore the evolution that continues to change shape in front of us.

Having taught Music Appreciation for several sessions now at BUE, our knowledgeable instructor Brittany is excited to offer this new focus and teach students all about the hidden messages in the stories that sound and song tell!
