

ABOVE AND BEYOND COMMUNITY CLASSES, INC. PRESENTS:

HISTORY OF WALT DISNEY: Character Traits and Personalities

with Jason Baron, M.S.

Mondays at 5-5:50pm via Zoom or In-Person

In this interactive class, instructor Jason Baron will present character studies of well known Disney roles by examining their personalities through a series of film clips and interviews with Disney creatives. Students will assess if these character traits connect to people in their own lives. Class instruction will offer students the opportunity to examine how communication styles and certain hardships can enhance grit and resilience and also how our own relationships shape character development. Students will be encouraged to utilize their research skills to enhance their facts and knowledge of Disney and their communication skills to participate in small group and class discussions. Offered via Zoom and in person at our location in Hauppauge.

7 Mondays for $315.00

1/2, 1/9, 1/16, 1/23, 1/30, 2/6, 2/13, (Off 2/20)
