

Creative Makers Class

TUESDAYS | 4:00-4:50 PM | INSTRUCTOR: CHRISTINA CAPEZZA

W/BRITTANY ENNOVER

IN-PERSON & VIA ZOOM: SEPTEMBER-DECEMBER 2025

Unlock your creative potential in this interactive, hands-on class designed especially to teach students how to create hand-made items that can be replicated to sell, gift or keep! Whether you're looking to start a small business, make meaningful handmade gifts, or simply enjoy some DIY, this class will guide you through a variety of trendy and practical craft creations. Instructor Christina step-by-step how to design, create, and personalize your projects, all while exploring the basics of selling online or at craft fairs. Students can expect to make items within these categories:

- Hand-poured scented candles
- Custom beaded bracelets and keychains
- Personalized tote bags using fabric paint or iron-on vinyl
- Decorative clay trinket dishes
- Handmade greeting cards and gift tags
- Aromatherapy bath salts or sugar scrubs
- Mini canvas wall art with inspirational quotes

No prior experience needed—just bring your imagination! All materials are provided, and you'll leave each session with finished items ready to sell or share with someone special.
