

Indoor Gardening: From Seeds to Flowers - NEW!

FRIDAYS | 2:00-2:50 PM | INSTRUCTOR: CHRISTINA CAPEZZA

IN-PERSON & VIA ZOOM: SEPTEMBER-DECEMBER 2025

NEW! Join Christina for this interactive, hands-on indoor gardening class designed for students who would like to cultivate their own green space—no backyard required! Whether you're living in an apartment, dorm, or small home, this course teaches you how to grow plants successfully using limited space and resources.

Each session, Christina will offer variations of the following Indoor Gardening instruction:

- Plant Basics 101: Understanding light, water, soil, and plant needs
- Container Gardening: Choosing pots, repurposing containers, and arranging plants
- Herbs & Edibles Indoors: Grow-your-own basil, mint, lettuce, and more
- Low-Maintenance Houseplants and how they are beneficial
- Best indoor plant options for beginners (snake plants, pothos, succulents)
- Propagation Techniques: How to grow new plants from cuttings
- Pest & Problem Solving: Natural ways to keep your plants healthy
- Creative Touches: DIY planters, macramé hangers, and plant décor tips
- Class can be taken in-person at the BUE Studio or via Zoom.
